

During the 2016-2017 school year, Norfolk School District identified 47 students that were exhibiting characteristics Dyslexia. All of these students participated in a Dyslexia intervention program. The district currently offers Take Flight: A Comprehensive Intervention for Students with Dyslexia and the Barton Reading and Spelling System. Interventions are delivered by a Certified Dyslexia Therapist or a trained para-professional.