Now that you are about to complete your project, take a moment and reflect on the meaning of your work and the process. Answer the following questions. Type them (along with the questions) and print them out and turn in to me. This document is in the Art Classes Folder, on the server “Self Assessment.

1. How would you best describe your work, Imitationalism, Formalism, or Expressionism? Why?

2. What expressive qualities did you use to help support your meaning? Refer to the Expressive Properties handouts (line, shape, value etc…)

3. What is your focal point in your artwork?

4. If you used color, what color scheme is dominant? Choose one of the six color schemes and explain your answer.

5. What was the intended meaning behind your artwork?

6. Do you think you achieved your intended meaning? If not, why?

7. Even if you achieved your meaning, what more could you do to your painting that would make the meaning more clear to the viewer?

8. How can you say your message more complexly, deeply or more sophisticated?

9. Answering differently from the previous 2 questions, what can you say that is different? In other words, given the same assignment (content and or subject) what might you do this time that would belong in this series?

10. How do you think your work habits affected the outcome of this project?

11. If you were to give yourself a grade what would it be?
